

Pieter van Holten
Chief Financial Officer
Member Nutreco Management Board

Pieter van Holten joined Nutreco as Chief Financial Officer in November 2021. Prior to that, he served for five years as Group CFO at SHV Energy N.V., a leading global distributor of off-grid energy and subsidiary of Nutreco's parent company SHV Holdings.

Before joining SHV, Pieter served as CFO Germany & Eastern Europe at Imtech Deutschland GmbH & Co KG and in various CFO roles at DHL, after spending the early part of his career progressing into financial management positions at PriceWaterhouseCoopers and Siemens.

Over the course of his career, Pieter has lived for more than a decade outside of his home country of the Netherlands. Since 2016 he is based in The Netherlands again and manages companies with a global footprint.

He earned his bachelor's degree in finance and accounting and his master's degree in business administration.
